

NOVEMBER NEWS

A Note from the Teacher

It is hard to believe November is already here! Parent teacher conferences are coming soon - November 17th and 19th. Be on the look out for papers to come home regarding conferences at the end of the week. Please continue to read with your child each night for 20 minutes. A great incentive are the Book It! Reading logs. Bring them in, filled out, at the end of November for a free pizza coupon! Your children have already grown so much and I look forward to sharing their progress with you! Have a wonderful Thanksgiving. I am so thankful to be able to work with you and your children!

Important Dates

Friday, Nov. 13th - Early Release
Tuesday, Nov. 17th - Conferences
Thursday, Nov. 19th - Conferences
Wednesday, Nov. 25th-27th - No School
Thanksgiving break

What We're Learning...

Reading and Writing

We are continuing our short vowel study. So far, we have covered short vowels a, i and o. Short vowels e and u will be next! We have been using "chunky monkey" and "stretchy snake" to sound out words when reading and writing. We have also been working on identifying the main idea, setting, characters and sequence of stories (beginning, middle and end). In writing, we continue to work on our narrative stories and using our 5 fingers to organize our stories. Ask your child how they use their fingers to tell a story ☺

Math

We just took our first unit assessment and the kids did great! We are now working on developing base ten number sense and identifying patterns in our 120 chart.

Social Studies / Science

We will be focusing on Social Studies throughout November.

- Maps
- Natural and human characteristics

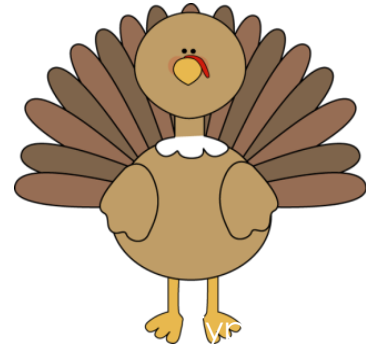

NOVEMBER NEWS

Una nota de la maestra

Es difícil de creer noviembre ya está aquí! Conferencias de padres y maestros se vienen pronto - 17 y 19 de noviembre. Esté en la mirada hacia fuera para los papeles para venir a casa en cuanto a conferencias en el final de la semana. Por favor, continúe leyendo con su hijo cada noche durante 20 minutos. Un gran incentivo son el Ello libro! La lectura de los registros. Trajesen, relleno, a finales de noviembre por un cupón de pizza gratis! Sus hijos ya han crecido mucho y esperamos poder compartir su progreso con usted! Tienen una maravillosa acción de gracias. Estoy muy agradecido de poder trabajar con usted y sus hijos!

Fechas importantes

Viernes, 13 de noviembre - Salida Temprana
Martes, 17 de noviembre - Conferencias
Jueves, 19 de noviembre - Conferencias
Miércoles, noviembre 25 al 27 - descanso de Acción de Gracias No hay clases

Lo que estamos aprendiendo

Lectura y escritura

We are continuing our short vowel study. So far, we have covered short vowels a, i and o. Short vowels e and u will be next! We have been using "chunky monkey" and "stretchy snake" to sound out words when reading and writing. We have also been working on identifying the main idea, setting, characters and sequence of stories (beginning, middle and end). In writing, we continue to work on our narrative stories and using our 5 fingers to organize our stories. Ask your child how they use their fingers to tell a story ☺

matemáticas

Nos lo tomamos nuestra primera evaluación de la unidad y los niños lo hicimos muy bien! Ahora estamos trabajando en el desarrollo de base diez sentido numérico y la identificación de patrones en nuestra carta 120.

Ciencias sociales/ ciencia

Nos centraremos en los estudios sociales a lo largo de noviembre.

- Mapas
- Características naturales y humanos